

Deco The Halls

© Carol Wax, 2007

Tis the season to shop at malls
To buy a ball or dolly

And deco-rate your Holiday walls
With boughs of fresh cut holly

But chopping trees for this just galls
And seems the height of folly

It casts a deathly sickly pall
We need a change, by golly

I suggest the festive calls
Be answered with this volley

Be kind, be good, give love to all
Rescue a cat or collie

Deco-rate your world and halls
With peace, tis far more jolly!
